

Best Events DMC
Destination Management Company

Best Events DMC has collaborated with Terranostra to provide a series of tour packages that support the local areas and their community. Terranostra, the Farm Holiday Association for Environment and Territory of Coldiretti (the highly regarded National Association for Agriculture) promotes, supports and assists the use of farming and valuing of the countryside, environment protection and promotion of local products of certified origin (zero km products).

Best Events DMC is a premiere Destination Management Company that prides itself in being professional and passionate for creativity and deliverance in services, and the promotion, primarily, in the spectacular array of landscapes within the Veneto Region and its people. In accordance with the definition of Ecotourism by The International Ecotourism Society, it strives to provide "Responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment and sustains the well-being of local people."

The packages developed by Best Events DMC and Terranostra incorporate working with these local communities by allowing tourists to experience the culture through direct interaction with the people, their land and their produce. The packages provide visitors with unique experiences and the opportunity for exceptional natural and cultural experiences.

By this the major principles of Ecotourism are kept and protected. The building of environmental and cultural awareness and respect; direct financial benefits for the conservation of the country and for the empowerment of the local people; raising sensitivity to host countries' political, environmental and social climate; providing positive experiences for both the visitors and the hosts'.

Best Events DMC believe that by standing by these principles, and therefore ensuring committed, passionate and professional management of supporting packages throughout the Veneto Region, tourism here can bring both a direct and a lasting benefit to the culture and environment of the countryside visited.

The Veneto Region is one of the 20 regions of Italy. The region and its provinces are abundant with diversity and culture and provide an outstanding array of local produce and varying countryside that is sure to impress and excite even the most well travelled visitor.

Please contact us at Best events DMC for any queries that you may have in regard to the packages that collaborate with Terranostra. We also have a large selection of other developed tours and packages, as well as we tailor-make programs designed entirely to any business or individual's requirements.

Our services include; organization of events, conferences, meetings, tours, product launches, gala dinners, team-building activities and further business, social and leisure activities. We provide an extensive range of event venues and sightseeing tours with experienced, multi-lingual contacts and guides to ensure each individual has an unforgettable experience taking home the true beauty, lifestyle, history and tradition of the Veneto Region.
